

Why I made this painting

By: Lila Deery 5th Grader, Barkley Elementary

I made this painting because I feel that a social injustice in the world is racism. I think this is wrong because people should NOT have different rights because they are black or white or any other skin tone. And one of my favorite quotes is the Dr. Martin Luther, King. Jr "I have a dream" quote.

"I have a dream that one day my four little children will live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character."

I love this quote because it changed the world for everyone. Now most of us are equal in the world. But some people are still being treated differently because of their race.

But we can change that! We can be aware of what we say and how we treat people. It can spread to other people! I hope you like my painting and my message! I want to thank you for your time!
